Terry Goddard Announces Stop Meth Poster Contest Winners

(Phoenix, Ariz. – Feb. 13, 2006) Attorney General Terry Goddard today announced the winners of the Stop Meth poster contest and unveiled the poster at the statewide Arizona Methamphetamine Conference at the Wyndham Hotel in downtown Phoenix.

The three winners of the Stop Meth poster contest were chosen from more than 300 entries from 42 schools across the state. The poster will be distributed to more than 700 conference participants attending representing law enforcement, tribal governments, substance abuse treatment programs, human services, school districts and community coalitions. The poster and students' artwork will be used in a statewide public awareness campaign to fight meth.

- First place was awarded to Encarnación "Shawn" Ramos of Andalucía Middle School in Phoenix. He received a $300 savings account from Wells Fargo.
- Second place was awarded to Zainé Kenealy of Desert Shadows Middle School in Apache Junction. She received $200 savings account from Wells Fargo.
- Third place was awarded to Sarah Bruemmer of Explorer Middle School in Phoenix. She received a $100 savings account from Wells Fargo.

The winning students also received a copy of the poster featuring their artwork signed by Attorney General Terry Goddard and Governor Janet Napolitano. Joining Attorney General Goddard in presenting the awards were his wife, Monica Goddard, and Dave Howell from the Wells Fargo Foundation.

The following students were awarded Honorable Mentions in the contest:
